Tot Music

Class Types

Music Together® is an innovative music program developed specifically for infant through pre-school age children. Children and parents create music through song, movement, chant and instrument play, emphasizing the fun of creating music.

Babies class is a Music Together® class specifically for infants who cannot sit up - newborn to- 8 months. BA=Babies only class on the schedule.

Tot Music Drum Program introduces drumming to children 4 to 6 years and a parent (younger siblings welcome). Classes teach rhythmic play and community drumming with plenty of opportunity for singing and dancing too!

Classes with no other distinction are mixed age Music Together® classes

Teachers

Miss Monica—Director of Tot Music; Certified Music Together® & Harmony Road® Piano instructor. BA in Psychology, studied guitar for over 15 years and dance for 10 years. Recently completed 38 hour World Drumming workshop for early childhood educators with Will Schmid.

Miss Tammy—Registered Music Together® teacher. Degree in Early Childhood Education and is currently working as a Pre-School teacher for Stony Brook University Child Care center. Community Educator for 16 years first in her own Pre-school/ family center; and later for Gymboree in East Northport and Drama Kids in Smithtown.

Miss Heather—Registered Music Together® teacher; M.A. in Music Education from Teachers College, Columbia University. Currently working as a choir director, teaching piano and singing privately. Prior to becoming a mother in 2012, taught elementary school music for six years.

Miss Kristen- Registered Music Together® teacher, yoga instructor and teaching artist. BFA in acting and a Masters in Special Education. Kristen's playfully energetic and engaging classes are focused on supporting the needs of each individual class to inspire music making there and at home in a fun and functional way.
